Nestled amidst vibrant gardens that greet visitors at the front door, this home opens to a concise hallway leading to two of the three bedrooms. The hallway then expands into a spacious, open-plan living area where the kitchen, dining, and living spaces seamlessly merge, enhancing the flow to the outdoor area. The kitchen, designed in a generous U-shape, boasts ample bench space ideal for culinary explorations. Off the main living area, a dedicated hallway discreetly accesses the bathroom, separate toilet, and laundry. The laundry is particularly functional with direct access to the outside, making doing laundry convenient and leading directly to the clothesline. It also features a sizable linen closet for additional storage. The private master bedroom, located at the rear of the house, serves as a tranquil retreat. It includes a walk-through robe that leads into an ensuite with a large shower, vanity, and toilet. An undercover outdoor patio is a great place to enjoy the low maintenance gardens and spend time with your furry friends.
