Elevated above street level and presiding over an attractive treelined streetscape on the fringe of the revered Gascoigne Estate, an immaculate façade introduces this extraordinary freestanding Victorian home, beautifully maintained and exquisitely presented. Creating a tribute to a bygone era, gleaming timber floors, graceful high ceilings and vast sash windows deliver traditional character, and generous proportions define every room within a floorplan that is both functional and versatile. Four principal rooms main offering ensuite and additional study nook and a refined formal dining room offer space for every growing family. The open plan kitchen, living and casual dining is the heart of this home as it opens out onto a gorgeous, landscaped garden oasis for all green thumbs to enjoy. A large lavish central bathroom, separate laundry along with a remote gate and undercover parking for one car. Additional features include, central heating throughout, ample storage, this brilliant lifestyle location positions Central Park and East Malvern Village within easy reach, as well as excellent transport links. In Malvern Primary School zone, a choice of excellent public and private schools are nearby.To InspectPlease refer to the listed inspection times.
