Lovely, bright and sunny, this family home is situated on a level block with a fantastic, child friendly backyard and plenty of room for everyone inside. The entry leads to the open plan kitchen and living area where you can entertain guests whilst cooking up a storm in the beautifully presented kitchen with quality appliances and a splash back overlooking the yard. A separate dining room can be left open to the living space, with sliding doors to close off for a more formal touch. The main bedroom is at one end of the home and has a walk through robe to the ensuite with shower, vanity with mirrored cupboard and toilet, whilst the remaining three bedrooms are at the other end of the home with a central bathroom which has a separate bath, shower and vanity, also with a mirrored cupboard. All four bedrooms are carpeted and the living areas have recently been updated with hybrid flooring which adds to the bright, light space and ambience. The laundry follows the trend of this home, with space and storage, leading to the backyard and outside, there is a large undercover deck area to enjoy summer BBQ's and entertaining. A separate, double garage with power and one sided tandem entry to the yard ensures secure off street parking and there is additional off street parking for those with extra vehicles. All this, a very short commute to the new Glebe Hill Shopping Centre and additional services plus a hop, skip and jump to the enclosed playground, this wonderful family home is ready to move in and enjoy!
