Come on through and find hidden behind the trees in this sought-after quiet court, the family home you have been waiting for. Set on approximately 1 Acre, the fully established gardens and beautiful landscape of this stunning property will have you itching to call them your own. A warning though, as once you step inside you know you are home with five sizable bedrooms, large private study, 3 separate living areas and central kitchen. The finishing touches on this home will have you wanting to move in and start enjoying straight away with a tasteful kitchen, well-appointed bathrooms and warming natural light coming through all of the large windows. Entering the private backyard, a timber lined alfresco area with its own wood fire is the perfect place to get comfortable or entertain while looking out over the fun happening on the lush lawns between the impressive fruit trees and veggie gardens out back. A true private oasis! Even the important small things on this property have not been overlooked, a generous size master bedroom with ensuite and a walk-in robe, a large laundry with storage and bench space, and zoned ducted heating and cooling to all but name a few. The property may feel like its own slice of the quiet life although its only minutes to the main freeway and also the centre of the bunyip township which has everything you could ever need.
