Timelessly elegant and supremely spacious, this beautiful 5-bedroom, 3-bathroom residence is an offering tailor-made for fine family living. Sprawling across two uncompromising levels and complemented by a fabulous alfresco setting, the home is matched by a convenient position close to all essential amenities. Impeccably presented, the light-lavished accommodation is enhanced by multiple living areas across both levels. From the formal lounge/dining room & casual living/meals area to an additional ground floor family room and upstairs retreat, there really is plenty of space for all family members to spread out and enjoy. A well-equipped contemporary kitchen will please hosts, while an undercover alfresco area takes care of outdoor entertaining. With five bedrooms and three bathrooms – including ground floor guest accommodation as well as an ensuited upstairs master – the home is bound to appeal to even the largest families, while finalising an exceptional package are ducted heating/cooling, split systems, a full laundry and double garage with indoor access. Close to the Ring Road for an easy commute, the home is also within moments of a host of essential family amenities including bus stops, schools such as Parade College & Watsonia North Primary and both Bundoora Square & Uni Hill shopping centres.
