Sitting pretty on a prime green title block in one of the suburbs favourite pockets, this extremely well maintained timber framed bungalow offers rare "entry point" buying. Retaining its original period features with a warm inviting feel, modern updates give the home instant liveability. With a host of modern updates, the home is "move in ready" yet still offers lots of options for further personalised improvements in the future. The layout is simple and practical with the feature central fireplace creating practical separation in the living zone. The neat, manicured outdoors provide room for a future alfresco with the quintessential front porch overlooking the huge reticulated front lawn area. Often sought but rarely found, there's also lots of room for parking multiple vehicles, boats and caravans. With thriving local shopping and café precincts on your doorstep, easy access to Freo and wonderful amenities, this is the perfect home to establish a great new lifestyle.....A clearly much loved and well cared for home! Further features:- Well appointed modern kitchen- Neutrally styled renovated bathroom and laundry- Jarrah floorboard through the home- High extended ceilings- Ducted evaporative a/c- Reticulated gardens- 330 sqm green title block
