Situated on a manageable 560sqm private and secure allotment, this charming home with a low-maintenance garden offers a delightful glimpse into the past while providing all the comforts of modern living in picturesque Mount Barker. Whether you're a retiree, downsizing, a first-time buyer, or an investor, this property is ready for you. Dating back to the 1940s, this maisonette home exudes timeless character with its polished floorboards, high ceilings, and sash windows. Inside, discover three spacious bedrooms, each providing soothing garden views. Towards the back of the house you will find a versatile study room. The front lounge is equipped with a gas heater and ducted reverse cycle air conditioning through the home for year-round comfort. The open-plan kitchen and dining area provide an inviting space for meals and gatherings. The bathroom even features a relaxing spa bath for your indulgence. Additional amenities include a laundry with convenient outdoor access, and a separate bathroom for added convenience. The low-maintenance front garden and extended driveway offer ample space for parking, whether it's a caravan or a boat. The fully enclosed rear garden features a verandah, creating a perfect setting for seamless indoor and outdoor entertaining. For those who love tinkering, there's a shed with vehicle access and a sturdy concrete floor. Conveniently positioned within walking distance of Mount Barker South Primary, St. Marks, and Mount Barker High School, as well as the local recreation centre, Keith Stephenson Park, and a sporting oval, this property boasts an unbeatable location. With public transport, supermarkets, and the bustling Mount Barker Central shopping hub just moments away, this delightful home effortlessly combines convenience with low-maintenance living.
