Nestled at the cul-de-sac end, within the highly sought-after North Buderim precinct, stands a substantial brick home, positioned on a sprawling 1158 m² parcel of land, offering an elevated vantage point to capture refreshing breezes. This Buderim residence boasts an array of opportunities for serene outdoor living. Whether you prefer hosting gatherings on the covered patio or within the expansive indoor living space, unwinding by the saltwater swimming pool, or meandering through the extensive gardens, you'll find endless possibilities for relaxation and entertainment. Additionally, you're only a stone's throw away from the new Coles shopping precinct, Buderim Village, schools, parks, and a convenient drive to the beach or river. Generous space is available alongside the property for a boat, trailer, or caravan, with convenient side access leading to the large, fully fenced yard. The potential for constructing a shed or granny flat at the rear is boundless, offering you versatility in shaping your ideal space. The gardens are adorned with an assortment of mature plants, and a bore with a pump eliminates the need for town water to maintain their lush appearance. The shed, which also accommodates swimming pool equipment, offers ample storage for your gardening tools. Poolside, an inviting cabana elevates the outdoor living experience. Indoors, you'll find four bedrooms, two bathrooms, and a spacious, air-conditioned, tiled open-plan living area, perfect for hosting guests. All bedrooms feature brand new carpet, while the master suite boasts a recently renovated ensuite. From this expansive living space, step seamlessly onto the covered patio, where you can keep an eye on the kids as they enjoy the pool. This remarkable family home provides a plethora of options for potential buyers. If you need additional information about this property or would like to schedule a viewing, please contact Brodie Rodgers today. Properties of this calibre in this area tend to be in high demand and don't stay on the market for long.
