This beautiful two bedroom cottage has been renovated and is impressive for both the first home buyer or investor. Featuring weatherboard construction (aluminium cladding to the front), two double bedrooms with built in robe to master. The open plan living/dining and kitchen area offers an inviting space that is light and bright. The stunning new bathroom offers a free standing bath, spacious vanity and walk in shower. Ducted evaporative cooling and gas heater will provide for year round comfort. The double carport and double garage as well as workshop area will impress the tradesperson. This can be accessed via the remote controlled gates making the rear yard secure. Situated on a 663m² (approx. allotment) this home is located close to schools, parks and shopping facilities.
