Nestled within mature, oasis-like grounds, this 4-bedroom, 2-bathroom home boasting 3 living areas, offers you an unparalleled family living experience, where every detail of this property has been meticulously curated to create the perfect family haven. In addition to the main residence, a standalone, self-contained 2-bedroom unit awaits, ideal for the extended family or paying guests. Situated on just under an acre of land, this property basks in all day sunshine and benefits from a desirable Northerly aspect. Thoughtful design, meticulous construction, and exquisite landscaping define both the home and its surroundings. Upon entry, guests are greeted by a spacious foyer and will instantly appreciate the high ceilings and natural light. The oversized master suite, secluded from the children's wing, features a generous walk-through robe and full ensuite equipped with a bath, shower, vanity, and WC. The heart of the home lies in the central open-plan kitchen, dining, and lounge area which seamlessly transitions to the undercover alfresco space—an ideal setting for entertaining amidst the lush garden backdrop. The kitchen, with its huge 4-metre island bench, European appliances, and ample storage, is sure to be the hub for all family gatherings. Additional features include 2 further living spaces, slow combustion heating, ducted evaporative cooling, and two split system reverse cycle units. Three more queen-sized bedrooms, each with built-in robes, a family bathroom, and a fully fitted laundry with a huge amount of storage complete the interior space. Set at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac, this property offers year-round enjoyment. From the cool shade of summer to the vibrant hues of Autumn, the cozy warmth of Winter and the blooming splendor of Spring this property always has a reason to love being at home. Furthermore, it sits on a parcel of land that allows you to spread out and enjoy country living, whilst also having the Rail Trail across the road and the beautiful Ovens River only a short walk through the pines away. A double lock-up garage with a spacious workshop, a garden shed and a concrete pad ready for further development further add to the property's features and appeal—a true haven for families seeking the ultimate lifestyle.
