SOLD by Miles Real Estate. Inspiration comes naturally high on the mountainside with this classic mid-century home on an elevated allotment where views sweep spectacularly from the city skyline to the ranges. A hidden dress-circle position boasting one of Melbourne's most enviable panoramic vistas is the highly sought-after and secluded site for a luxurious next-level transformation in an impressive 724m² setting (approx). Currently comfortable having been home to the same family for 58 years, this private cream brick residence is a tightly-held three/ four bedroom gem that with its alfresco terraces, established garden surroundings, and double carport is bursting with exciting possibilities. From renowned Heidelberg School artists to the greats of Australian architecture including Harold Desbrowe-Annear, Walter Burley Griffin and Frederick Romberg, this remarkable location has seen the best of the best ply their trade and now, to continue a tradition of creative excellence, a chance of a lifetime lands in your hands. Explore the options while surveying the skyline and either renovate and introduce a second storey to the existing home that's the ideal foundation for luxury enhancement or build afresh and design a state-of-the-art residence in a beautiful poolside landscaped setting that sets a bold new standard in family perfection (STCA). Create your Mount Eagle masterpiece here and look forward to sensational views, the utmost seclusion and a lifestyle of convenience only moments to East Ivanhoe Village cafes and shops, Ivanhoe and Kew's finest schools, buses, train station, freeway, Yarra River parklands and the Burgundy Street retail-medical precinct.
