Great First Home or Great Property Investment

This old beauty of a brick home is sitting on a spacious 1,370m² block that has loads of potential for the keen gardener to grow self sufficient veggie gardens and plenty of room for the kids and family pet to play in as well.

With open plan living, 3 bedrooms, 1 bath, 1 car brick home, with a 2 car shed would be ideal for anyone who is wanting to enter the property market.

If you are looking for a fixer upper this house would also be idea for any keen avid renovator!

Currently rented out to a very reliable tenant with good rental history, this property would also suit someone who is involved in property investment and is wanting to expand their portfolio.

If your are looking at buying your first home, this property would be the ideal one for you!

8 Mungar Road, is in a flood free area of Tiaro and close to all amenities.

Inspection by appointment only.
