A range of refined downstairs spaces and an array of luxurious upstairs accommodation are complemented by the elegant, low-maintenance outdoor surroundings of this superlative contemporary home. The sophistication of a formal living room sets the tone for a separate study and a versatile sun-room zone that precede living and dining areas defined by exceptional size, a superb open-plan kitchen and seamless flow to appealing paved alfresco proportions beneath a café awning. A main bedroom featuring walk-in robes and a sensational ensuite shares the upstairs level with two further bedrooms, both built-in robes, one enhanced by a balcony retreat, and a central bathroom fitted and finished with an evident emphasis on quality. Heating, cooling, ample storage and secure garaging for two cars accessed from Hartley Lane only start the story of this home's additional advantages close Mason Street and Newport station.
