Located in a peaceful yet convenient estate, this contemporary family home has a modern street appeal with its render façade and is surrounded by its well-manicured landscaping. You will be immediately impressed by this delightful abode. The immaculate, contemporary kitchen is fully equipped with ample storage space, tiled splash back, stainless-steel appliances, dishwasher, pantry & is complimented by the open plan dining & living space. Completing this wonderful home, you'll find two spacious bedrooms with double robes alongside the central bathroom, plus the master bedroom at the front of the home featuring a large walk-in-robe and private ensuite. When it comes to entertaining, enjoy the large undercover alfresco area with timber decking, and electronic blinds for your enjoyment all year round. Added features include new vinyl flooring, reverse cycle air conditioning, plantation shutters throughout, a double garage with internal access, 2 garden sheds, and much more! The home is just moments from Ellen Lyndon Park, The Great Southern Rail Trail & an easy stroll to the main street. Don't miss the opportunity to call this beautiful place home!
