To enquire, please email or call 1300 815 051 and enter code 0602 Come home to Stonehill, where you'll find a friendly atmosphere and down-to-earth community spirit, somewhere you won't feel isolated. Stonehill offers golf-course next door and winding bike paths. Plus, there's a new $20 million shopping precinct now open and private primary school coming soon. And if that isn't enough, it's also part of the charming, urban town of Bacchus Marsh. With its established sporting clubs and friendly main street, you really are part of the perfect community. This spacious flat block of 392m² offers the space to build your home and the outdoor entertaining area for the entire family to enjoy. Ease of travel is key with new local shops, schools and parks, walking tracks, public transport and train station and the highly sought after Bacchus Marsh Grammar only minutes away. Find walking and biking trails right next door. Then, just down the street, a proposed shopping precinct with a childcare centre and proposed school – what every family needs.
