Boasting glorious City and surrounding views, flush with luxury fittings and filled with natural light, this brand-new five-bedroom home delivers enviable family living dripping with ultra-modern style. From its soaring ceilings to its spacious proportions, city views and abundant storage, this is a statement-making home that you'll love to flaunt. Set on _1116_ sqm (approx.), and boasting _50_ sqm (approx.) of total interior area, the home opens into a striking formal lounge set under incredible soaring ceilings and large picture windows. A generous rear living space finds a chef-worthy kitchen (deluxe oven, induction cooktop, large butler's pantry, two dishwashers, chic contrasting cupboards) and opens out to an undercover outdoor entertaining area primed for playing host or just relaxing. The primary bedroom showcases large windows, WIR and sublime ensuite (freestanding bath, rainfall shower, double sinks), and each of the four subsequent bedrooms hosts WIR and private shower ensuite. Further features include large upstairs retreat, central upstairs bathroom (freestanding bath, double sinks), downstairs powder room, separate laundry, split-system heating/cooling, double garage with storage, impressive driveway space, large front yard. The location is tucked away in a quiet spot that's just a few minutes' drive from the Calder Freeway, making for easy commutes. All the retail options of Sunbury Square are a short trip away, and you can stroll to local parklands and playgrounds.
