Situated in a sought after location and convenient to shopping plus a selection of quality schools, this property is a great opportunity for buyers searching in popular Newstead. Occupied by the same family since the day it was built and also being the very first house in the street, this family home has been lovingly maintained and has stood the test of time. The spacious floor plan has separate kitchen, dining and family rooms, 4 bedrooms, the master with ensuite, main bathroom with bath and shower and a huge separate lounge/rumpus room with open fire. There is a separate auto double length single garage with extra storage/workshop space and easy access to the home. Outdoors there is an attractive balcony entrance between the garage and the house which is a pleasant spot to enjoy the morning sun with a cuppa. The established gardens are level and well fenced creating a great space for children, pets and the green thumb of the family. The property is an easy stroll to local shopping and cafes and for the more energetic, a 30 minute walk will take you to the Aquatic Centre and into the CBD.
