Step inside the front door of this home and get ready to feel relaxed and ready to enjoy your new life in this peaceful little street of Portarlington. A floor plan that flows into an open plan area which overlooks the rear low maintenance garden. Comprising three bedrooms, two of which come off a small passage with a central bathroom. The main bedroom, complete with ensuite is at the rear of the home that enjoys a sliding door opening onto the al fresco and a view of the garden too. Nice private rear yard to sit read the paper and listen to the birds sing. Direct access is provided by a double remote-controlled garage. There is a sizable shed for extra storage. No need to bring your mower. Close to the township of Portarlington with all the local amenities that enable little travel to get your supplies. Medical centres, cafes and the ferry that can take you to Docklands for a day's adventure, or to attend your favourite footy match. With houses only on one side of the street. Over the road is a well treed native reserve. Inspections can be arranged to suit.
