Positioned in the heart of Queenscliff, this double fronted heritage home is rich in history and coastal charm. Dating back over 150 years, the home features cherished attributes from the mid-Victorian era while incorporating modern luxuries for the comfort of today. As you step through the weatherboard façade you will be greeted by soaring 11'5 ceilings adorned with captivating pressed-metal designs, creating a sense of elegance and grandeur. Detailed and elaborate skirtings, architraves, and cornices can be found throughout the original southern wing of the home, reflective of the impressive history this dwelling holds. A comfortable living area resides at the front of the home complete with one of many wood fireplaces thoughtfully placed throughout the home for added ambience and warmth. Alluring archways and timber floorboards lead you towards three spacious bedrooms, a second lounge/study, and two central bathrooms offering an abundance of space for permanent residents and guests alike. A light-filled extension to the north wing was designed to complement the original dwelling with a large kitchen and dining area. Flowing effortlessly from one space to another, this room opens to a vast north-facing deck offering ample versatility to host family and friends no matter the season. This home provides a rare blend of heritage charm and contemporary comfort in an unbeatable location. There is secure off-street parking with remote controlled gate access for added convenience and security. Relish in luxury with the beach at one end of the street, and Queenscliff's vibrant shopping village at the other - the best of both worlds right at your doorstep. Additional Features: European laundry, hydronic heating throughout, reverse-cycle unit, shared driveway, undercover veranda, additional outdoor entertaining spaces.
