This stunning home combines a substantial dual level floor plan with an elevated setting that captures north-east facing, open and unrestricted vistas across the National Park. The home has been tightly held for 16 years, during which time it has undergone extensions and renovations resulting in a very liveable home and an inspired entertainer. Many of its rooms spill out through walls of glass to the expansive central covered terrace. The impeccably presented home rests on a large 1,141sqm block with easy care attributes. It enjoys a quiet setting that is within walking distance of the bus, local shops and park and in the St Ives North Public School catchment.
