

8 Weeroona Place, Rouse Hill, NSW 2155

Sold House

Wednesday, 20 March 2024

8 Weeroona Place, Rouse Hill, NSW 2155

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Type: House

Shad McMillan
0288829922

Loren Khamu
0288829922

$1,749,000

This stunning double storey home offers the perfect family entertainer! It's polished, it's neutral, it's spacious, it's light filled and it's feature packed - ready for you to move straight in! Throughout the home are multiple generous living spaces including the separate formal lounge at the front the home, this would make the perfect home theatre room. Moving through the home, the original formal dining in now a fantastic study or home office, and then across the rear is the open plan family room and meals area. There is also the all-important rumpus room upstairs as another break away area. The sleek and stylish gourmet kitchen features 40mm Caesar stone bench tops with a handy breakfast bar, crisp white polyurethane cupboards and drawers, plus quality Bosch stainless steel appliances including a dishwasher and gas cooktop. You are going to love the accommodation level, it's perfect for the large or growing family with the large rumpus room feeding into 4 super-sized bedrooms, which all have built ins, ceiling fans and are serviced by a well-appointed family bathroom. The huge master bedroom comes with its very own private ensuite. Features adding further value to the home include air-conditioning throughout, all gas appliances, a combination of hybrid floors and plush carpets, plantation shutters and a remote double garage with internal access. The backyard will feel like your very own resort right at home. Lathed with travertine you have a private and undercover entertaining area overlooking your sparkling inground pool that is safely surrounded by glass fencing plus some grass left over for the kids and family pets to enjoy! Everything you could ask for is here waiting for you!