Nestled upon an expansive 740 square meters of land with no easements, this three-bedroom residence presents an excellent opportunity for both the first-time homebuyers and astute investors. Bedtimes are comfy in any of the three generously-sized bedrooms. The first and third bedrooms even come with built-in robes and the master bedroom goes the extra mile with a sliding door that opens up to a peaceful backyard entertainment spot. The bathroom is cleverly located, making it super convenient for all the bedrooms. With features aplenty, this home offers :- A spacious formal lounge /dining room- The neat and tidy kitchen has plenty of cupboard space and overlooks the meals area- The bathroom is functional and conveniently close to all bedrooms- Climate control is taken care of with the property having both heating and cooling- The solar system will assist in alleviating those quarterly power bills Parking is a breeze with the U-shaped driveway out front, and there are not one but two back verandahs for all you social butterflies. Plus, there's a single garage and a double garage/workshop combo for those who like to tinker around the house There is also a caravan that comes with the property (ideal for the growing family.) Location couldn't be better! This residence is ideally situated within walking distance to essential amenities such as doctors' offices, a supermarket, and a petrol station, making daily errands a breeze. The nearby Eyre Shopping village provides an array of shopping and dining options for your convenience. For the sports enthusiasts, local sporting clubs are just a stone's throw away, allowing you to embrace an active lifestyle. The incredible John McVeity Centre, known for hosting a multitude of community events, offers boundless entertainment opportunities for families, bringing the community together in unforgettable ways. Families with school-aged children will appreciate the proximity to John Hartley School, ensuring a smooth and easy commute for young learners. Call Gareth today for more information!
