Overlooking Kingston Beach Golf Course and Kunanyi Mount Wellington, this special property offers an abundance of space that is full of light, enjoys all day sun, and is in a private leafy setting. This character filled; architecturally inspired home is an absolute delight. This home is a must see for anyone not needing numerous bedrooms, but who value open-plan spaces designed for restful, contemplative living. On entry the five metre ceilings with surrounding clerestory windows provide an amazing feeling of space and light. Downstairs there is a beautiful leafy north-facing outlook from living, dining, and kitchen windows. The Hampton's inspired interior is light and bright with a cosy wood fire in the living area. Outside there is a private courtyard that leads onto the north facing deck where you can relax and unwind year-round. It's hard to believe when inside the sanctuary that is this lovely house and garden that you are just two minutes' walk to the shopping district of Kingston and a five-minute walk to the beach.
