Red Rock's unique yesteryear character, with its warm community feel offers a remote and relaxed atmosphere, without being too far from town. Nestled between the beach and the Corindi River this tranquil village on the Northern NSW coast is the perfect haven for enjoying nature, whether it be walking, fishing, boating or other water sports in the surrounding National Park, pristine estuary and beaches. With the home set back from the road, beyond the fence and shady trees of the large front yard, the sense of serenity and privacy is instant. Stepping inside, the open plan living space radiates a warm ambience created by the amalgamation of timbered walls, doors and window frames, high raked ceilings, lead lighting and the cosy wood heater. Three generously sized bedrooms, bathroom and laundry spread over the remaining lower level whilst upstairs boasts an exclusive parents retreat; a huge main bedroom with en-suite. Both levels are air conditioned for year round comfort. A thoughtful and quality build using Western Red Cedar and verandahs front and back protect the home and the extended covered rear deck is the ideal spot to relax and soak in the leafy outlook regardless of the weather. A drive-thru garage under the home and a convenient carport at the front cater for your vehicle and storage needs. Whether you want to unwind in retirement, raise a family exploring the coastal outdoors or desire a holiday home in a quiet location near the beach, river and close to the township and amenities of Woolgoolga, then 80 Flaherty Street, Red Rock could just be what you're looking for.
