A short stroll from Margate Beach, in the beautiful family-friendly peninsula suburb of Woody Point, is this renovated post-war residence. Recently updated to greatly improve on original charm, creating a contemporary three-bedroom, two-bathroom home with ongoing potential to alter further if/when required. With a little imagination applied to the landscaping, this 405sq m property could be the ultimate playground for children. A large covered entertaining area overlooks a spacious backyard already framed by established gardens. Inside offers a home presenting as near-new with open-plan living/dining off a modern kitchen, a cosy sunroom, three bedrooms and two updated bathrooms. Minutes from Southern Cross College, waterfront parks and Margate Village shops, 80 King Street offers but is not limited to:+
