Shine on Sheoak

If the sound of birdlife and the smell of the flowering forest in spring appeals to your senses, then you will be right at home with this rustic earth brick & iron home residing on 5 private acres of natural bushland. The home benefits from plenty of soft light and has a lovely warm feel with its extensive brick work complete with arches over high wooden ceilings. Stacks of space here too with generous room sizes including the master bedroom which flows into a large bathroom complete with spa bath. Bitumen road frontage, undercover carport, several sheds, vegie patch and decent rainwater holding completes the package nicely.
