Only 500m from the main street of Mundubbera, the classic Queenslander design of this home offers a sense of charm and character, with high ceilings and ample natural light throughout. The spacious kitchen and cozy lounge area provides a comfortable space to gather the family. With three bedrooms, there is plenty of space for a growing family or guests to stay comfortably. The original tongue and groove walls and pine flooring add to the historical appeal of the home, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere. The 1492m² block is fully fenced with an interior fence creating a separate yard. The elevated position of the house provides stunning views of Mundubbera and its surroundings, making it an ideal spot to relax and unwind. Overall, this property offers a unique opportunity to own a piece of Mundubbera history while enjoying stunning views. Whether you're looking for a peaceful retreat or a charming family home, this Queenslander has something for everyone.
