If only these walls could talk. Tightly held by the one family for almost 50 years, this 1960-built home offers the space for the next growing family to make their own. The home oozes with stunning features of the era, is situated on a double block (1426m² approx.) and contains a huge workshop that would be perfect for the car collector, tradesperson or hobbyist. You will be amazed at the sheer size of the rooms, the 9ft ceilings and the additions that have been added over the years. The living, kitchen and dining spaces are bathed in beautiful sunlight and relish in rural views. There are four generous bedrooms, as the saying goes, more than enough room to swing a cat. A home that has seen so much love will require some updates so let your imagination run wild for your renovations. The solidly built property has the bones in place to be a really distinctive home in such a sought-after setting. A short, flat walk will have you at all of the conveniences that charming Westbury has to offer as well as the iconic Village Green and Town Common. Close to the hotel, takeaway shops and a short distance to the local supermarket. Launceston City Centre a short 25 minutes away and the convenience of Deloraine only 10 minutes. With so much to offer and no time to waste, call for your inspection of this immense property today. You will fall in love!
