Nestled in the heart of Hidden Valley, this stunning double-story home offers the epitome of comfort and style, ideal for large families. With five spacious bedrooms, including one conveniently situated downstairs, there's ample room for everyone to enjoy their own space. Stepping inside, you're welcomed by a warm and inviting atmosphere, illuminated by natural light pouring through the windows, enhancing the open-plan living areas. The heart of the home features a modern kitchen equipped with top-of-the-line appliances, granite benchtops, and a butler's pantry, perfect for crafting delicious meals for loved ones. Upstairs, three large kids' bedrooms and retreat await, alongside the Master suite with his/her robes and an impressive ensuite featuring a large shower, granite benchtops, and a spa bath offering views. However, the real gem of this property lies outdoors—a sparkling pool overlooks breathtaking views of Hidden Valley, providing a refreshing oasis on hot Summer days. Picture weekends spent lounging by the poolside, hosting barbecues, and creating lasting memories with family and friends. The outdoor entertaining deck offers the perfect space for gatherings and celebrations, making every moment here truly special. This home provides a serene retreat from the hustle and bustle of everyday life. Additional features include a 3-car garage with a workshop and drive-thru access, gas ducted heating and evaporative cooling, an undercover clothesline, and more. With a bus stop conveniently located out the front, providing transportation to Assumption College, and only a short drive to Wallan's township, this property seamlessly blends urban convenience with rural tranquillity.
