Now unless you have been living under a rock, it is no secret that ARIA is not only a renowned name in Brisbane inner city luxury apartments but, also consistently continues to push the boundaries on what can be designed, built and managed is only limited by your own imagination!! Constructed and settled in November 2019, AMIRA residences continues to be the smallest and most boutique across their entire portfolio. With only 85 homes spread over 8 floors, AMIRA still has all the qualities, amenities and attention to detail of the larger building but with half the traffic of people. Level 9 is a full Private Oasis fully customised and for exclusive use solely for the residents. With breathtaking views of the ever changing City Skyline, the River, Numerous parks and the Queens Wharf Casino this is a rooftop impossible to replicate. Your expensive rooftop literally has it all. From the rooftop pool overlooking the parklands and city skyline, private daybeds, stunning manicured gardens, Private dining room, Undercover BBQ areas, private GYM and Weekly YOGA. Apartment 801 is the highest you can get and has stunning views towards the river and the natural light from having no one above you truly has to be seen.
