This classic weatherboard home, built in the 70's offers a tranquil outlook, and plenty of space for growing your own fresh produce and enjoying the crisp mountain air and beautiful Tasmanian light. With 3 cozy bedrooms, this home is the perfect starter for those looking to enter the market and the opportunity to add your own touches and improvements will only reward you in years to come. With Mount Wellington as your playground, here at 806 Huon Road, you have access to world class walking trails, including the Pipeline Track only minutes away. Savor the rustic atmosphere of the nearby Fern Tree Tavern, and with public transport practically at your doorstep, you can be in the city in about 10 minutes. Around 1,800 m² of land, plenty of off street parking and a blank canvas to start your home ownership journey, why not give me, Donna Wooley of Homelands Property a call to arrange an inspection.
