Secure, sophisticated, and illuminated by sweeping easterly views across Fawkner Park, this spacious two bedroom, three bath parkside apartment is on the doorstep of an abundance of lifestyle pleasures – including the CBD, South Yarra and Albert Park. The open living and dining room features abundant natural light and is accommodated by a galley-style kitchen, adorned with stone benchtops and splashbacks, premium Gaggenau appliances and soft closing cabinets, completing the space alongside an adjoining balcony, making for a perfect hub for whatever mood, whether it be relaxation or entertainment. A powder room with hidden laundry, as well as a private and tucked away office area ensure that all space is utilised. The generously-sized main bedroom features a walk-in robe and opulent marble double vanity ensuite, and the second bedroom boasts its own ensuite with walk-in shower. While additional features of this residence include built in heating and cooling, intercom, underground secure parking, shared 25m pool and gym facilities and building concierge, highlighting the sophistication and security of this residence, it is the parkside location that really shines at 505 St Kilda Rd. Inspection by appointment only
