Here's an opportunity to secure this property in one of the most popular real estate suburbs across Victoria. Step inside and discover a home built for comfort and family. With four bedrooms and the option for a study or fifth room, along with a dedicated library, there's ample space for both relaxation and productivity. Entertain guests with ease in the three distinct living areas, including a cosy family room, an elegant formal living space, and a dynamic games room, perfect for gatherings and leisure activities. Enjoy year-round comfort with the convenience of ducted heating, ducted vacuuming, and split-system air conditioning, all seamlessly integrated to enhance your living experience. Step outside onto the rear balcony and indulge in outdoor relaxation while taking in the serene views of the garden. It's the perfect spot for alfresco dining or simply unwinding after a long day. Conveniently located with easy freeway access, top-tier schools, and essential amenities nearby, this home offers the perfect blend of seclusion and convenience. For outdoor enthusiasts, Lysterfield Lake beckons with its natural beauty and recreational opportunities just moments away.
