Come home to the serenity of this elegant haven, nestled amongst private and leafy gardens, capturing expansive views to Mount Coot-tha and the city from its elevated Annerley position. Rich in character and timeless style, tasteful contemporary inclusions enhance the essence of an archetypal Queenslander. There's potential too with an expansive underhouse space suitable STCA for further bedrooms, a living area or perhaps a self-contained studio. Local parks, cafes and restaurants are a short stroll from your door, and the CBD is just 6 km away. Defined by classic appointments including a gabled roof and welcoming front verandah, this inviting home greets you with a light-drenched foyer with stunning timber floors, VJ walls, lofty ceilings and leadlight windows. The spacious living/dining area, is complemented by a superbly appointed kitchen boasting a gas cooktop and pyrolytic oven with steam and airfryer. A huge bi-fold servery window and expansive openings to the massive I-shaped rear deck invite breezes and nature in, and create a beautiful space to share, entertaining family and friends. And at the end of the day sit back and sip your favourite drink as the sunset fades to reveal twinkling lights of Brisbane's city skyline. Or retreat to the indulgent master suite, complemented with walk-in robe and a large ensuite where even the spa bath has a view. You'll love to call this one home.
