Carefully presented for your consideration is this 3 bedroom 2 bath home (a rarity for the area) ready to welcome its next family. The open plan allows free rein in the usage of the living area. The kitchen is functional with tons of bench space. The backyard is just the right size for kids to frolic and play or allows enough space to grow your own veggies to those endowed with a green thumb. The undercover area that spans the entire length of the house allows for mixed use as additional parking or outdoor undercover entertaining. The home is freshly painted throughout and both bathrooms have new shower screens installed. Located in a quiet street yet conveniently close to all amenities this home is perfectly priced so come have a look to fully appreciate all that this well loved home has to offer.
