The Port Authority Apartments are breathtaking and an award-winning Heritage Beaux Arts style building designed by Sydney Smith Ogg & Serpell in 1929. You'll be marvelled upon entry and this will never stop. Upon entering apartment 813, you are immediately welcomed by an abundance of space and natural light. In front of you, is your sizeable living and kitchen space. Your kitchen is clean and swamped with storage space, modern stainless steel Bosch appliances and polished flooring. To your left, is your carpeted, open plan living space, built for ultimate relaxation and dining with a stunning view of the CBD and Southbank. Both your bedrooms are large and include wall-to-wall carpeted flooring, freshly painted walls, ample storage space and beautiful views of the Yarra River and CBD. Making it the ultimate place for down-time and relaxation! Down the hall is where you can locate your stunning tiled central bathroom consisting of stylish, modern appliances meeting all your hygienic needs. Living residents of the Port Authority Apartments get to enjoy beautifully designed communal spaces, secure intercom access, a stroll to Southbank restaurants, Yarra River and the Crown Entertainment complex. Plus enjoy endless transport options including trams and trains from Flinders Street and Spencer Street stations. This opportunity does not come along often...
