Auction

Auction Location: On-Site Behind the fully secure front gate and fence of 82 Currumburra Road "Hillie House" lies a home that truly must be seen to be appreciated. With the well throughout and tasteful renovations creating a calming, warm & beautiful space for your family to enjoy. From the tropical pool and entertaining space to the home theatre to the guest house "Hillie Pool House" – this is one home you don't want to miss! A home like this will cater for every family and ensure enough separation and space and/or additional income for some extra family vacations! If you're a large extended family the "Hillie Pool House" provides a great space for parents or grown up kids to live but still enjoy their own space.

Alternatively, and as it is run now, the "Hillie Pool House" is set up as an Air BnB generating over 58k/annum running with extremely high occupancy rates. So whether you're a family looking for additional income, or an investor looking to capitalise on returns. Look. No. Further. As you enter you are greeted with a large custom designed entrance which instantly gives you a feeling of luxury and quality certainly matched with the first impressions! The large open plan living space centred by a modern kitchen is the centrepiece of the home – an area the family inspired chef will love to put together some MasterChef quality meals. Neutral colour tones along with the windowpane along the bench top bring the backdrop of the lush tropical garden inside adds to the ambience of this family space. Hybrid timber flooring throughout and low maintenance surrounds ensures this is a home your family can live in and enjoy! The bedrooms are generous in size and offer ceiling fans and built ins. The master bedroom offers a real parents retreat. The spacious bedroom is accompanied with walk-in robe leading to your ensuite with floor to ceiling tiles and modern stylish fittings. At the rear of the room is a private escape where you can enjoy the afternoon sun, a great place to unwind. For those of us the home office can be an important part of our homes. This is a space you'll love to spend those hours working away as the room embraces lots of natural light and features a built-in desk with shelving. Complimented with a double French door entrance leading to the entertainment space offering your tropical oasis as your outlook. True dual living spaces are hard to come by, and more so ones that offer this kind of style and comfort. Whether it's somewhere for extended family, kids who haven't left the nest or you're looking for a fantastic additional income opportunity – this will impress! With its own separate entrance, the guest house provides a space in reflection of the home but with its own special feel. Perfectly positioned on the northern side of the block is an entertaining space and pool area that will be the envy of your friends.

The backdrop, lush tropical plants surrounding an inviting space your family will love. Some well positioned easy to maintain lawn areas means there's room for the kids and pets to play also softening up the space. Now picture this - Sunday afternoon, it's been a long weekend and you're wanting to unwind with a glass of wine over after a long day in the sun by the pool. A moment of peace and quiet while the kids are tucked away in your very own mini home theatre. Sound proofed and fitted with surround sound and double electric recliner chairs it's the ultimate experience of comfort and entertainment!
