An original three bedroom home that is situated in a quiet court on a comfortable 744 sqm (approx), this spacious property is the perfect opportunity for a first home buyer to enter the market or a savvy renovator to polish a hidden gem. After having been lived in and loved for over 16 years this classic home is ready for its new owners to move in and make it their own. After parking under the homes attached single carport, you come into a spacious entry way in the heart of the home which functions as a hub for all its rooms. Branching out from the entrance is the generous and functional kitchen and dining space which connects through to the long and open living room, all at the front of the home making the most of the large windows covering each wall and the warm northern sunlight coming in. Down the hall are three large bedrooms, each including built-in wardrobes and serviced by a central bathroom. Venturing back outside, the backyard comes complete with an undercover sitting and entertaining area where you are able to comfortably relax in the fully fenced and light filled yard. The tall garage and additional carport are a welcome and convenient inclusion on the property, ensuring that all your storage needs are comfortably met with access straight through from the home's driveway. Ready to be lived in, and bursting with potential, be sure to come and see this classic family home that's waiting for you. View the Due Diligence Checklist: consumer.vic.gov.au/duediligencechecklist
