Recently introduced to the market in the charming suburb of Karoola, this spacious contemporary residence eagerly awaits a delightful family to make it their own. Ideal for raising a family and establishing a hobby farm, the property has been utilized by the current owner for cattle grazing in the paddocks. With abundant sunlight throughout the day, it presents an excellent opportunity for those interested in cultivating vegetables and embracing a self-sustaining lifestyle. The residence features a generously sized open-plan living area, complete with a walk-in pantry. Equipped with both a heat pump and a wood heater, you'll be well-prepared for Tasmania's varied weather conditions. Additionally, the property boasts a substantial garage, making it perfect for individuals engaged in one or more projects.
