Proudly own a piece of history and make it your own. With an immaculately preserved, historically rich facade and an interior that is ripe for renovation, this unique three bedroom home is calling all renovators to restore it to its original beauty or upgrade it to today's style and functionality. Nestled within 'Fabian's Centennial Terrace', circa 1880, the home flaunts original period features and soaring ceilings; luxuries that are a rarity in today's market. It also features a flexible floor plan and zoning (ACZ1), established gardens and rear laneway access. Conveniently located on the city's edge, enjoy everything Seddon, Footscray and the surrounding suburbs have to offer. Exceptional dining, entertainment and shopping are within an arm's stretch. Walk to Middle Footscray train station or cycle to the city, moving from A to B has never been so easy.
