Charming and spacious are just some of the attributes that make this home special, from its character period features including decorative ceilings, rich timber floors and high ceilings captivate you from the moment you step in. Comprising three bedrooms, not one but two bathrooms and an open plan living area with dining, kitchen and lounge room overlooking the deep rear garden. The entertaining/ dining extend to the garden with an undercover decking area perfect for a BBQ or to just sit and relax. This home represents the best of period elegance, space and positioned perfectly with all local amenities within easy reach. We donate a portion of our fee from every property transaction to the Woodards Foundation to support people experiencing homelessness, family violence and social isolation.
