Amidst beautiful blossom trees and established lush surrounds, this tightly held home creates an immediate impact with its exquisite presentation. Privately poised with a timeless brick facade and elevated front veranda, the home is completely serene yet perfectly connected to a network of public transport, excellent schools and boundless parks, where everything you need rests in this heart-warming abode on 549sqm (approx). Cleverly designed to create multiple distinct zones, displaying an engaging front formal lounge with verdant garden aspects and an adjoining formal dining room. Polished timber floors carry you to a space that inspires togetherness and warmth with an open-plan family and meals area. The kitchen, overlooking serene garden views, boasts quality stainless steel appliances, including a gas cooktop, a spacious benchtop, and ample storage. The accommodation includes four light-filled bedrooms, three of which are graced with built-in robes and serviced by a central family bathroom with a bathtub and separate W/C. Indulge in the peace and tranquillity of the rear main bedroom, complete with a built-in wardrobe and private ensuite. Step outside to host guests through the seasons with a covered alfresco, low-maintenance concrete area, established gardens and complete privacy from neighbours to relax and unwind or celebrate with family and friends. Access from Heron Court leads into an oversized garage with additional car accommodation via the driveway set behind the secure gate. Extra home features include a large laundry with external access, ample storage and a built-in ironing board, guest powder room, ducted heating, ducted cooling, alarm system and great built-in storage throughout. Just around the corner from Chadwick Reserve, 400m to Kingswood Primary School, moments to Haileybury College and in-zone for Parkdale Secondary College, this move-in ready family home offers full-sized value, with plenty of space for everyone to relax and enjoy the outdoors.
