Auction

In Room Auction Saturday 22nd May at 6:00pm, Harcourts Property Centre, 15 Harries Road, Coorparoo Stylish, contemporary and easy to maintain, this comfortable Cannon Hill home will tick every box on your property wishlist. On top of a functional floorplan and an incredible list of inclusions, you will also be treated to a prime position close to shops, schools and dining options while the city is just 6.5km (approx.) away. The light-filled interior will suit a variety of house hunters with three good-size bedrooms with new carpet and window coverings and two well-appointed bathrooms. The enviable master suite boasts reverse cycle air-conditioning and a modern ensuite with all the rooms located upstairs and within easy reach of the main bathroom. Everyday life will revolve around the ground floor where you will discover an open-plan kitchen, dining and living zone. Neutral colour tones and on-trend finishes are on show plus there's split system air-conditioning for year-round climate control. Love to cook? Ample bench and storage space in the kitchen will make catering a breeze and there's also a suite of stainless steel appliances where you can show off your chef skills. Whether it's an intimate dinner for two or a gourmet feast for guests, you can take your pick from the dining area or the shaded alfresco overlooking the established, low-maintenance gardens. A private front courtyard extends the outdoor space even further with the long list of features going on to include a ground-level powder room, a single remote lock-up garage and an extra parking spot. Residents of this prized community enjoy a friendly and welcoming environment along with a shared resort-style pool and a fully equipped gym. Cannon Hill's bustling shops, picturesque parks and amenities are all only minutes from your front door and you'll also love being so close to bus stops, major roads and Cannon Hill station. Cannon Hill Anglican College and Murarrie State School are nearby and with easy access to the CBD, this is a dream location for those who commute to work.
