Walk inside this huge privately built property and you will feel like you are home. The spacious sized lounge area offers plenty of room for the family while there is plenty of additional living/dining space on offer as you walk up to the massive kitchen. If you love cooking, then you will love this kitchen! Boasting gas cooktop, electric wall oven, dishwasher, space for large fridge, and a long breakfast bench for all your friends to keep you company while you create a masterpiece! The adjoining dining area is also very spacious and bright with a sliding door leading out to your picturesque backyard. Three bedrooms are carpeted with fans and built-in robes. While the 4th bedroom is tiled, located at the front of the house and can also be used as a large office. The master bedroom is enormous with a walk-in robe and contemporary en-suite consists of a shower, vanity, separate toilet and has great views to your backyard. The main bathroom is portioned like rest of the property where there is plenty of space on offer, free standing bath, large shower, and separate toilet. Now for outside, we have an appealing entertainment area overlooking a beautiful inground salt pool with natural bushland behind and awesome views beyond. There is also established lawns and the large, powered work shed is great for the 'boys toys'. Solar power and ducted reverse cycle air conditioning will help keep the family comfortable all year and the power bills down. There is also ample of off street parking to the front of the property. This is truly a magnificent home and needs to be inspected so you can appreciate what this feature pack property has to offer. Call Lindsay now for your private inspection and be surprised!
