Set on a level block in a quiet Howrah street, this much loved home of over 40 years is ready for new owners. The home features a good sized lounge with polished Tas Oak floors and a reverse cycle heat pump, timber kitchen and a large second living space that has been used for family gatherings and offers loads of options. There are three bedrooms with built in robes in the main bedroom, bathroom with separate bath and separate toilet. Through the laundry there is a mud room with storage and this leads to the large covered entertaining space, also accessed off the second living room. The yard is completely level, fully fenced and has loads of productive fruit trees, a garden shed and gets all day sun. If you are looking for a beautifully maintained family home in a great location that is just a short drive to Eastlands, Shoreline, Howrah Beach & local shops then you must come and view 84 Allumba Street!
