Formerly Weedon's Hotel, circa 1870, this two-level period home is a unique offering, filled with character and contemporary convenience. Situated in a sought-after heritage precinct, in a quiet residential street, it offers a spacious and versatile floorplan on the edge of the CBD. Immediately comfortable, featuring three double bedrooms, wide, bright hallway, formal living room, updated contemporary kitchen and meals overlooking a paved north facing courtyard and a stylish, modern bathroom. Further features include a basement cellar, under stair storage, box room and rear pedestrian access to Faraday Street. Enjoy the best of Carlton with cafes, restaurants, Carlton Gardens, Lygon Street, trams, universities and hospitals all on the doorstep. Nelson Alexander Pty Ltd
