Welcome to 84 Campbell Street, Newstead, a stunning example of a classic weatherboard federation style home. This immaculate property boasts 3 bedrooms, 1 bathroom, and 2 open off-street parking spaces, making it the perfect choice for families or those seeking a touch of historical charm. Steeped in history, this home was built in 1917 and has been lovingly restored to its original glory, preserving its unique character while seamlessly integrating modern comforts. Step inside and be greeted by polished floorboards throughout, creating an elegant and inviting atmosphere. The neutral color paint scheme adds a touch of sophistication and allows for personalization to suit any style. The well-appointed modern kitchen is a masterpiece in itself, designed to seamlessly blend with the home's classic aesthetic. With sleek finishes and top-of-the-line appliances, it offers both functionality and style for the discerning chef. Comfort is ensured in every season with wood fire heating, a heat pump heating and a heat transfer system providing a cozy retreat during winter and a cool oasis in summer. The bi-folding doors from the living area open onto an expansive entertaining deck, creating a seamless integration between indoor and outdoor living spaces. Imagine relaxing on warm summer evenings or hosting gatherings with friends and family, all while enjoying the serene ambiance. The master bedroom and one other bedroom feature built-in robes, providing ample storage space and adding a touch of convenience to your daily routine. The bathroom of this home is a modern yet classic masterpiece, showcasing meticulous attention to detail. With its elegant fixtures and fittings, it provides a spa-like experience, perfect for unwinding after a long day. Outside, the low-maintenance landscaping is designed in a classic English style, enhancing the home's curb appeal and providing a picturesque setting. The high ceilings, original timber doors, architraves, and skirting boards add to the timeless charm, making every corner of this property a visual delight.
