Introducing a remarkable real estate opportunity in the heart of Moonah, Tasmania. This exquisite property at 84 Coleman Street presents a perfect blend of modern elegance and comfortable living. Nestled in a desirable neighborhood, this home offers a serene and convenient lifestyle for families, professionals, or anyone seeking a remarkable dwelling.

Prime Location: Situated in the sought-after suburb of Moonah, this property enjoys close proximity to schools, shops, parks, and public transportation, ensuring easy accessibility to all amenities and services. This home boasts a contemporary open plan design that exudes style and comfort. With meticulous attention to detail, it offers a seamless fusion of functionality and aesthetics, creating an inviting atmosphere throughout.

This ambient three bedroom family home is kept temperate all year round with a reverse cycle heat pump ensuring you're kept toasty in winter and cool in summer. The laundry showcases an abundance of storage adjacent to the kitchen and to house those tools and bigger items, there is plenty of room in the double garage and under home area. There is also an under cover entertainer's deck with an exceptionally low maintenance rear yard at the rear of the home, and a lovely covered porch for the entry to the home. Sure to tick many boxes, there are many key little extras that are hard to find:

- Security system
- Three garage spaces
- Vinyl clad for low maintenance
- Aluminum window frames
- Side by side fridge/ freezer
- Quaint street appeal with manicured gardens

Please don't hesitate reach out and organise your very own private inspection.
