Fishermen take note. This hut is situated in the popular village of Cunggulla where fishing for barra, crabs and flathead is an every day reality. What a fantastic opportunity to buy an original 50's beach hut which has been owned by one family since it was built. The block boasts extensive sea and parkland views that have to be seen to be believed. This property has 2 bedrooms and a small living and kitchen area as well as a bathroom and laundry area. This property can be added to suit your needs as there is an 850 m2 block which could house a huge shed for your boat. At this price your holiday beach hut may no longer be a dream but your new reality. Call now to view this unique find
