In a highly coveted tree-lined location, this classic c1930's solid brick residence's superbly presented single level dimensions are distinguished by evocative Art Deco features and an impressively proportioned floorplan. Superbly presented to enjoy now, it offers exciting prospects to easily update with improvements designed to your own requirements (STCA). A host of rich period features including ornate ceilings, leadlight windows, deep sills and timber paneling are displayed through the central entrance hall, elegant sitting room with open fire and the formal dining room also with a fireplace. A central sky-lit retreat, bright well-equipped kitchen and casual dining area open to the private northeast garden with a large undercover entertaining terrace and double garage. The gracious main bedroom with built-in robes is complemented by three additional double bedrooms with robes and two bathrooms. Perfectly situated near Hartwell station, Toorak Rd trams, a range of excellent public and private schools, local cafes, Leo's Supermarket, Middle Camberwell shops and Lynden Park, it includes ducted heating, laundry and storeroom. Land size: 500sqm (approx.)
